LIT-TLE- BO-PEEP.

Lit-tle Bo-peep Has 'lost her sheep, And does-n't know where to find them: Leave them a-lone, And they'll come home, And bring their tails be-hind them.

Little Bo-peep
Has lost her sheep,
And doesn't know where to find them.
Leave them alone,
And they'll come home,
And bring their tails behind them.

Little Bo-peep
Fell fast asleep,
And dreamt she heard them bleating ;
But when she awoke,
She found it a joke,
For still they all were fleeing ;

Then up she took
Her little crook,
Determined for to find them ;
She found them indeed,
But it made her heart bleed,
For they'd left their tails behind them.

It happened one day,
As Bo-peep did stray
Unto a meadow hard by,
There she espied
Their tails side by side,
All hung on a tree to dry.

Dame Jill had the job to plaster his nob
With vinegar and brown paper.

To see his paper plaster ;
Her mother, vexed, did whip her next
For laughing at Jack's disaster.

GOOD KING WENCESLAS.

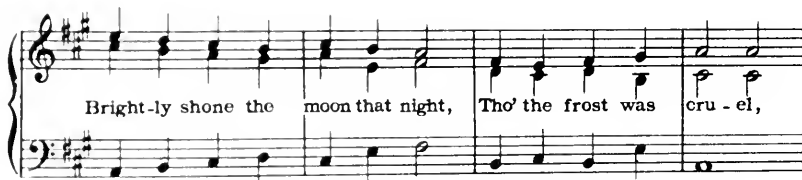

Quickly.

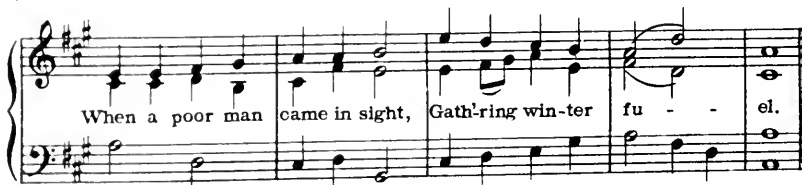

1. Good King Wen-ces-las look'd out On the feast of Step-hen,

When the snow lay round a-bout, Deep and crisp and e-ven;

Bright-ly shone the moon that night, Tho' the frost was cru-el,

When a poor man came in sight, Gath-ring win-ter fu - - el.

"Bring me flesh, and bring me wine,
 Bring me pine-logs hither ;
 Thou and I shall see him dine,
 When we bear them thither."
 Page and monarch, forth they went,
 Forth they went together,
 Through the rude wind's wild lament,
 And the bitter weather.

"Sire, the night is darker now,
 And the wind blows stronger ;
 Fails my heart, I know not how :
 I can go no longer."
 "Mark my footsteps, good my page,
 Tread thou in them boldly ;
 Thou shalt find the winter's rage
 Freeze thy blood less coldly."

In his master's steps he trod,
 Where the snow lay dinted ;
 Heat was in the very sod
 Which the saint had printed.
 Therefore, Christian men, be sure,
 Wealth or rank possessing,
 Ye who now will bless the poor
 Shall yourselves find blessing.

Then entered in those wise men all three,
 Very reverently, upon bended knee,
 And offered there in His presence

 Sing praises unto our Heavenly Lord,
